

From The East - Steven J. Rosensweig - Worshipful Master

Hello Brethren,
Summer is slowly coming to an end. School has started and the weather is cooling off. Our September stated meeting is fast approaching and I am looking forward to the fall and winter routine.
Over the summer we had a couple of events that took place. First was Rocklin for the troops. Brother Joe Ingraffia spearheaded this event, which was a big success once again. Euclid Lodge helped with the parking. Afterwards some of the brothers and their family stayed and enjoyed the show. Next event was our picnic. Even though worshipful brother Will had his knee replaced he was still able to pull off a successful picnic, with burgers and brats being on the menu. Plenty of people brought dessert. It was great to see everyone. September will be another good month. Our stated meeting will be September 1st with no practices beforehand so we will see how good our memories are. Our practices start again on Monday, September 14th. For me it will be nice to get back into the routine of practice again. On the third Tuesday, we will be having a second degree provided our candidate is ready. There is a fifth Tuesday in September, however Euclid Chapter 13 has asked to use this day. I am glad to oblige them. It is nice to see that the chapter needs the Tuesday for work. I will see you next Tuesday September 1st for our stated meeting. Until then I wish everyone well.

I AM FREEMASONRY

I was born in antiquity, in the ancient days when men first dreamed of God. I have been tried through all the ages, and found true. The crossroads of the World bear the imprint of my feet, and the cathedrals of all nations mark the skill of my hands. I strive for beauty and symmetry. In my heart is wisdom and strength and courage for those who ask. Upon my altars is the Book of Holy Writ, and my prayers are to the One Omnipotent God. My sons work and pray together, without rank or discord, in the public mart and in the inner chamber. By signs and symbols I teach the lessons of life and of death, and the relationship of man with God and of man with man. My arms are widespread to receive those of lawful age and good report who seek me of their own free will and accord. I accept them and teach them to use my tools in the building of men, and thereby, find direction in their own quest for perfection so much desired and so difficult to attain. I lift up the fallen and shelter the sick. I hark to the orphan's cry, the widow's tears, the pain of the old and destitute. I am not church, nor party, nor school, yet my sons bear a full share of responsibility to God, to country, to neighbor and themselves. They are freemen, tenacious of their liberties and alert to lurking danger. At the end I commit them as each one undertakes the journey beyond the vale into the glory of everlasting life. I ponder the sand within the glass and think how small is a single life in the eternal Universe. Always have I taught immortality, and even as I raise men from darkness into Light, I am a way of life. I am Freemasonry.

On Saturday July 18, 2015 - a contingent of Euclid Brethren volunteered their time in support of the Operation Support Our Troops (OSOT) 10th Anniversary "Rockin for the Troops" concert at Cantigny Park.

Volunteers from Euclid included Joe Ingrassia, Monty Jackson, Alex d'Avila, Jerry Yingling, Vaneet Kapoor, and Paul Felstrup. After our stints in the parking lot, many of us gathered with friends and family for the Lt. Dan Band Concert. Joe Ingrassia

Picnic

The Euclid Lodge annual family picnic was held on August 15th, from 1-4.30 PM Spring Lake Park in Aurora, Illinois.

Though attendance was relatively sparse, a good time was had and some great food consumed by those in attendance!

Bros. Will and Decent did the shopping and prepped the food, while Bros. Zears, Murray and Ingrassia fought the smoke and heat and manned the grill.

Bro. D'Avila brought a couple one-person Kayaks to the park, and he and his wife gave lessons to the several uninitiated folks who dared to give it a try.

Bro. Kapoor and his wife, Bro Ingrassia and his wife, and Bro Hemphill's son were among the brave to test the calm waters of Spring Lake!

UNIVERSALITY OF MASONRY

The universal appeal of Freemasonry is confined by the response of men the world around. Men of many races and tongues have found in Freemasonry the response to their need for fellowship and brotherhood. Members of the craft are to be found in every country in the world. The Grand Lodge of the State of Israel has a constituent Lodge composed almost exclusively of Arabs. Within that Lodge Jew and Arab find fellowship in spite of the political differences that have torn the Near East to shreds. A few years ago the Grand Lodge of India was constituted. Many races and many religions are represented in its membership. It was consecrated by the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Scotland; constituted by the Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ireland; and its officers were installed by the Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of England. We need no finer example of the universality of the Craft.
