

From The East - Steven J. Rosensweig - Worshipful Master

Greetings Brethren

With the weather getting cold soon the leaves will start to change and once again it is time for us to resume our labors at lodge.

September was a great month we started our last quarter of the year with our stated meeting in September seeing everyone back at lodge was a great pleasure. Then during the third Tuesday we conferred a second degree on one brother. It was a nice change not doing multiple degrees. The Fifth Tuesday was slated for the Red Team. It was nice have some time to get ready for October and letting them use the lodge for there needs.

October looks to be a busy month with grand lodge session coming up October 9th and 10th if you want to go you can contact me for further information. We also have the past masters dinner fast approaching. The Dinner will be Wednesday October 21 at the Hilton Oak Brook Resorts. There will be a great presentation by our own Worshipful brother Tim Dry. It looks like we will be back doing multiple first degrees during the third Tuesday in October. I hope to see as many brothers come out to lodge as possible. It is always nice for our candidates to see a large showing of brother's that come out to support them in their endeavors to become a Mason.

November is just around the corner and our annual election will be held Tuesday November 3 so everyone please come out and participate in meetings and our elections. I wish everyone all the best until next month.

At this time we have 21 regular members who have not paid their 2015 annual dues, 9 of whom have also not paid their 2014 dues.

Brothers, if you are experiencing financial problems and are unable to pay your dues, please contact me or the Worshipful Master so that we can take the necessary steps to assist you.

DEGREES

The Lodge will be conferring the Entered Apprentice degree on October 20 on two candidates.

CORNERSTONE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

The cornerstone centennial celebration committee is working diligently in preparation for the upcoming celebration of the 100th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the lodge building.

Inside the cavity of the cornerstone, a time capsule consisting of a copper box with 28 individual items was placed after the cornerstone was laid. Along with the usual festivities that this occasion deserves, our preparations include removing the time capsule, displaying it's contents and placing a new time capsule in the cornerstone cavity to hopefully remain there for the next 100 years.

Masonic Quote

Flattering as it may be to the human mind, and truly honorable as it is to receive from our fellow citizens testimonies of approbation for exertions to promote the public welfare, it is not less pleasing to know that the milder virtues of the heart are highly respected by a Society whose liberal principles must be founded in the immutable laws of truth and justice. To enlarge the sphere of social happiness is worthy of the benevolent design of a Masonic institution; and it is most fervently to be wished that the conduct of every member of the Fraternity, as well as those publications that discover the principles which actuate them, may tend to convince mankind that the great object of Masonry is to promote the happiness of the human race.

Euclid Lodge No. 65 Cornerstone Laying Ceremony

Naperville Clarion September 13, 1916

The cornerstone of the new Masonic Temple in this city was laid on Saturday afternoon with impressive Masonic ceremonies, before a large assemblage of residents and Masons of the city and from surrounding counties. Bro. Ralph H. Wheeler, Grand Master of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Illinois, officiated, assisted by an occasional Grand Lodge composed as follows: Brothers H. H. Benjamin, Deputy Grand Master; C. W. Reed, Senior Grand Warden; C. A. Ashley, Junior Grand Warden; Claude V. Leffler, Grand Treasurer; Isaac Cutter, Grand Secretary; A. E. Randell, Grand Orator; Harry Woodward, Grand Chaplain; C. V. Wellner, Senior Grand Deacon; Edward Enck, Junior Grand Deacon; Wm. H. Bird, Grand Marshal; C. F. Wm. Schultz, Grand Pursuivant; John Eisele, Senior Grand Steward; Earnest Rich, Junior Grand Steward; Ralph Steele Shepardson, Grand Architect; C. S. Gurney, Grand Tiler; John A. Bell, Master of Oldest Lodge.

The Most Worshipful Grand Master was escorted from the depot to the Masonic Hall by Aurora Commandery No. 22, Knights Templar, under Commander V. Merritt Pepper and Captain-General C. E. Cooley, which was headed by the Lounge Factory Band and the G. A. R. Drum Corps of Aurora.

The Grand Lodge was then convened at the Masonic Hall where, together with a delegation of Master Masons, the procession was again formed, the line of march being east on Jefferson Ave. to Washington St., south to Water St., west to Main St. to Jefferson Ave., and east to the Temple site.

The Grand Lodge then counter-marched through the line of procession and assumed their places on a tastefully decorated platform, erected for the occasion.

Worshipful Master Sankey S. Good, after a few introductory remarks, then requested the Most Worshipful Master and the Grand Lodge, on behalf of Euclid Lodge No. 65, to officiate at the ceremonies of the laying of the cornerstone, which was performed with Masonic honors. The occasion was most impressive and will never be forgotten by those who were privileged to witness it.

Appropriate vocal selections were tendered in the course of the ceremonies by the Oriental Quartet of Chicago and a feature most appreciated was an oration delivered by Rev. A. E. Randell, the gist of which was the relation and benefits of Masonry to society in general and the fact that the importance and desirability of any edifice to a community, no matter how beautiful architecturally, rested absolutely on the nature of the institution which it houses.

The cornerstone was the gift of Bro. Arthur R. Beidelman, a member of Euclid Lodge No. 65; it is exceptionally beautiful in design and will be a lasting and worthy monument to Masonry and to the beneficence of Bro. Beidelman.

Criticism of Freemasonry

The Fraternity has certain customs and usages. Those who denounce it in public can do it no harm, but defense can harm it. If a man gets up in public and says he thinks the public school is useless, the church a bad influence, and the government a failure, banks a hindrance to business and the automobile a blot on civilization, do you defend the school, the church, the government, the bank, the automobile? Every thinking human being knows the public school has made this country what it is, that the church makes men and women better, that this is the best of all government, and that the automobile is the greatest of time savers. These things are self-evident. The man who denies them makes himself, not the thing he criticizes, ridiculous. Criticism of Masonry hurts the man who utters it, not the Craft.
